

INVITATIONS 101

“The First Impression”

Think about it...The first impression your guests will have of your wedding is when they open up the invitation that you have sent to them. You want them to know that you have planned a special event for them to attend!

What your guests receive from you, sets the tone for the entire event.

(A less than perfect invitation ensemble can have the opposite effect).

Since your invitations truly is the first and only impression, consider the following when making your stationery decisions:

- 1) Your Style: Formal, Simple Elegance, or Casual
- 2) Where your event is taking place: Resort, Country Club, Banquet Facility, Park, Home or Destination ...and match the stationery choices to these factors.
